Five weeks after enlistment I received a Corporals stripes and was detailed and had charge of a squad of twenty Couriers, at the Headquarters of the 24 Corps, General Gibbon Commanding, Which position I held until the close of the war and my discharge.

Service.

In regard to the battles I was in I refer you to the record of the 24th. Corps. We were most certainly in it,and in a fight who was more in it than the mounted orderly, with his dispatches in his belt, which he must deliver at all hazard. Sometimes there was not a chance for written dispatches. I remember at the surrender of Gen. Lee at Appomattox. Gen. Grant and staff was with us, and I was sent to the right for them to advance immediately. It would take a big book to tell my experience in the army.
